Designed by Beaux Arts architect Donn Barber, FAIA (1871-1925) of New York City, the Choo Choo served as Chattanooga's main railroad terminal station from 1909 to 1970. In the early 1970s local businessmen renovated the landmark – made famous in song in the 1940s - for use as a hotel, which is listed on the National Register of Historic Places. The hotel features “Victorian” train car rooms, a 1950s-style diner, an espresso bar, a micro-brewery bar, three restaurants, several shops and gardens, and a 1924 trolley to get you around the complex.

When making reservations, be sure to mention that you are participating in the SESAH conference and ask for the special discounted rate of $92 per night (plus tax). Choose either a standard room or one of the Choo Choo's popular train car rooms.

TRAVEL

The Chattanooga Metropolitan Airport offers direct flights to and from Atlanta, Charlotte, Chicago, Dallas, Memphis, Orlando, Washington D.C., and Tampa (via St. Petersburg), and is served by American Eagle, U.S. Airways, and Delta, among others. The hotel offers a free shuttle to and from the airport (call 423-308-2466).

For those who prefer to drive, Chattanooga is centrally located and served by two interstate highways (I-24 and I-75).
